DETAILS: Suburban Indy Shows will be hosting the Suburban Indy Home & Outdoor Living Fall Show right in the Grand Park neighborhood. The show will run from September 20th to September 23rd. Fall is the perfect time of year for planting, transplanting, landscape, remodeling, and design/build projects! This show was designed to connect Suburban Indy homeowners with local businesses to discuss your landscape, home improvement and home building needs!

During the show you will be able to sample and purchase local food and wine, shop with local artists, purchase your autumn decor from local garden centers, find out what's "on trend" for Fall and the upcoming holiday season, plus learn the best ways to extend your outdoor living season, well into the winter months! The Home and Outdoor Living Fall Show provides something for everyone, including a Kid's Day on Sunday the 23rd.
