

August 2018

For Immediate Release

For more information: Kylie Money, Public Relations Specialist, Kylie@bpsindy.com , 317.846.8965

Suburban Indy Home and Outdoor Living Fall Show at Grand Park

Westfield, IN – Suburban Indy Shows will be opening the doors of Grand Park to the neighborhood for the Suburban Indy Home & Outdoor Living Fall Show starting on September 20th. This event runs through September 23 and promises to help visitors extend their outdoor living season and have a little fun while doing so. Every neighbor is invited to Bring Their Own Dreams and turn them into a reality!

The Home and Outdoor Living Fall Show will merge interior and exterior design experts into the same venue. Showgoers will get connected with local business experts in landscape, home improvements, and home building needs! Attendees are encouraged to sample or purchase local food, shop local artists, purchase décor from local garden centers and explore what's "on trend" for the upcoming seasons.

The show features top Suburban Indy area businesses showcasing their talent for your home's interior and exterior look. The Neighborhood Marketplace will display local artists who create one of a kind, handmade, artisan products. Hassle free aisles allow for easy wandering to take in all that the Home and Outdoor Living Fall Show has to offer without feeling pressured.

Grand Park offers showgoers convenience with free parking and shuttles to transport people from the lots that are further out. Greeters will be prepared to help direct patrons to the correct ticket line, reducing wait times and ensuring no one has to wait outside.

The Home and Outdoor Living Fall Show provides something for everyone, including a Kid's Day on Sunday the 23rd. Suburban Indy Shows believes wholeheartedly in supporting their neighbors. 10% of ticket sales revenue will be donated from the Home and Outdoor Living Fall Show to the Sunshine Social Club, an organization that is dedicated to serving adults with intellectual disabilities.

Suburban Indy Shows is the creation of North side local, Donell Heberer Walton. She is a veteran in the production of large-scale consumer shows, having led the Flower and Christmas (among other) shows at the Indiana State fairgrounds for many years. The show will be at Grand Park in Westfield, which is located just one mile West of US-31 at the SR 32 or 191st street exists and is only 13 minutes from 1-465 via Meridian St or Keystone Ave.

For more information on tickets, vendors, features, parking and scheduling for the Suburban Indy Home & Outdoor Living Fall Show, as well as the upcoming 2018-2019 shows, visit www.suburbanindyshows.com.

---